Much Entertaining, Largely of the Week-End Variety, Is Now Being Done by Members of the Fashionable Set, and Out-of-Doors Affairs Are Numerous and Attractive.

Outdoor sports are the chief attraction for society at this time of the year, with horse and dog shows, county fairs, steeplechase and hunt races, arranged for almost every day of the week. This means much entertaining, especially over the week-end, on the part of those owning country places in the neighborhood, for nearly all the big estates are opened now for the fall season. The Lenox Horse Show a week ago was a great success and was largely attended by members of society. Some of the exhibitors and spectators are pictured on this page.

The Westchester Horse Show, held at White Plains last week, was well attended, and it will be followed this week by the fair at Mineola and the annual horse show at the Morristown Field Club. The latter affair will commence on Thursday and continue until Saturday night. All the boxes have already been sold, and the exhibition promises to be the most successful ever held by the association.

One of the interesting engagements announced last week was that of Miss Charlotte Cram, daughter of the late Henry Cram, of Newport, to Robert Ludlow Fowler, Jr., of this city. Miss Cram made her debut several seasons ago. She is a niece of J. Sergeant Cram, Mrs. J. Woodward Havens and Miss Lillian Cram. She spent the summer at the Theodore Loring place, at Stockbridge, Mass. Mr. Fowler is the son of Surgeon General, Mr. Robert L. Fowler, of No. 28 West 9th street. He was graduated from Columbia in 1910, and is a member of several prominent New York clubs. The engagement of his sister, Miss Elizabeth B. S. Fowler, to Dawson Coleman Glover, a son of Mrs. Henry S. Glover, was announced a few months ago.

Another important engagement announced last week was that of Miss Sarah Remsen Manice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Manice, of No. 6 West 33d street, to Charles Henry Mellon, of Philadelphia. Miss Manice was introduced to society two seasons ago and has taken an active part in the social life of the younger set. She was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of her brother, William De Forest Manice, and Mrs. Harriet Ferry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hayward Ferry, which took place on June 2 in St. Thomas's Church. Miss Manice is now with her parents at their country place at Southampton, Long Island. Mr. Mellon is a son of Mrs. Charles Henry Mellon, whose country home is at Morristown, N. J. He is a member of the Morristown and the Morris County golf clubs.

Mrs. Henry E. Fanshawe, of Morristown, N. J., announced last Thursday the engagement of her daughter by a former marriage, Miss Marie G. Bryce, to Charles A. Kip, also of Morristown. Miss Bryce is at present cruising with friends near Newport. She is active in the social life of Morristown and is also interested in the charitable institutions of that city. Mr. Kip is a son of George Goelet Kip. He was graduated from Columbia in 1902 and is a member of the Union, the Metropolitan and the Morristown clubs. No date has been set for the wedding.

In Christ Church, Greenwich, Conn., at noon next Saturday, Miss Madeline Hayward Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. C. Smith, will become the bride of Irvin Williams Day, of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Day, of Utica, N. Y. The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at Miralta, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, near Greenwich. Miss Smith will be attended by her sister, Miss Margaret S. Smith; Miss Mildred Holmes, Miss May A. Powell and Miss Edith L. Adams, of this city; Miss Louise Day and Miss Charlotte E. Williams, of Utica; Miss Mary Gray Runkle, of Plainfield, N. J.; Miss Helen S. Williams, of Warwick, N. Y., and Miss Marjorie G. Smith, of Greenwich, Conn. Sherman Peck, of Ithaca, N. Y., will act as best man, and the ushers selected are William H. Eddy, John M. Ellis, Donald A. Campbell and George A. Shedd, of New York; Robert E. Tremman, of Ithaca, and Joseph H. Ramsey, of Rochester. A special train will take guests from New York.

The marriage of Miss Laura Felton Hazard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ayrault Hazard, to Frederick Rhineclander Brown, of this city, will take place at noon next Saturday in St. John's Church, Far Rockaway, Long Island. Miss Katherine Hazard, whose engagement to Courtlandt D. Moss was announced on August 5, will act as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Jessie Ashley Hazard, another sister, whose engagement to Charles R. Leonard, of Boston, was announced on July 10; Miss C. Lesley Fuller, Miss Genevieve Sanford, Miss Florence Burton and Miss Millicent Amy. J. Macy Willets will act as Mr. Brown's best man, and Charles Kenneth Clark, W. Tilden Fulton Hazard, Hans Carl Phillips and William A. Hazard, Jr., will be ushers. A reception will be held at Meadow Hall, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Hazard, at Cedarhurst, Long Island.

Invitations have been received in this city for the wedding of Miss Marion Ellsworth Ashmore, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. William Schall, Jr., to E. Franklin Brewster, Jr., of this city, which will take place at noon on Saturday, October 4, in the Pequot Chapel, New London, Conn. Miss Margaret Schall and Miss Dorothea Keasby will be Miss Ashmore's maids of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Alice Gouverneur Kortright, Miss Margaret Mueller, Miss May Vogel and Miss Thelma Violet, of this city; Miss Eleanor Reyburn, of Washington, and Miss Isabel Moore, of New Orleans. Mary Cameron and Phyllis Williams will act as flower girls. William M. Brewster will act as his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Henry T. Ashmore, Harold Schall, Le Roy Whitney, Lewis Stevens, Alexander Schumann and Charles Schall. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at Rockburne, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Schall, near New London.

Miss Phoebe Judkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Judkins, of No. 52 East 64th street, will be married to E. Harrison Higgins, son of former Governor Frank W. Higgins, on the afternoon of October 22 in the Church of the Heavenly Rest. Attending the bride will be Mrs. John N. Tonnelle, Mrs. Frederick Richards, Mrs. Roger Lutz, Miss Evelyn Alvord and Miss Jeanette Reid. Roger Lutz will be best man, and the ushers will be Grover Cleveland Loebig, Beckwith Havens, Frank Keene and Pascal Franchot. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the St. Regis. Mr. Higgins will give his farewell bachelor dinner at the New York Club on October 19.

John R. Drexel returned from Europe last week and is at the Gotham for a short stay.

Mrs. George G. Haven will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Forsyth Wickes, in Tuxedo, during the month of October.
